All meetings regularly scheduled or unscheduled will be duly advertised and posted in accordance with The Open Public Meetings Act.

If in the future, it is decided that a special meeting is to be called, an individual special meeting notice will be posted on the Evesham Township website at <https://evesham-nj.org/government/notices>

If a special meeting is to be held virtually via Zoom, log-in instructions for that specific meeting will be located in the public notice for that special meeting at <https://evesham-nj.org/government/notices>

Any member of the public who wishes to submit a public comment at a meeting will be provided the ability to do so during a specific portion of the meeting. Members of the public looking to attend or offer a comment at a special remote public meeting must follow the steps for that specific meeting, which will be available in the special meeting notice on the township website.
