

Evesham Township Youth Advisory Committee

Facts About YAC

What is YAC?

- The Evesham Township Youth Advisory Committee, or “YAC” for short, was established in 2011 by Councilwoman Deborah Hackman.
- YAC is made up of Evesham Township youth who are committed to serving their community and learning about government on the local level.
- Members participate in many volunteer projects and fundraisers such as road clean-ups, food drives, car washes, and much more!
- YAC members also develop their leadership skills and become well-informed citizens through guest speakers, tours of the township, and an annual Mock Council Meeting.
- Members are also eligible for annual YAC Scholarship awards to help them in furthering their education!

When are Meetings and Events?

- YAC meetings are currently held on the second Thursday of every month at 6:30pm in the Evesham Township Building Court Room (984 Tuckerton Road, Marlton).
- Events and Volunteer Projects are held on weekends and weeknights throughout the year. Members are encouraged to be involved in as many activities as possible!

Who Can Join?

- Evesham Residents entering 6th to 12th grade can join at any time. They do not need to attend Evesham Public Schools to join.
- Any teen wanting to better their community, get service hours, and have fun!
